Pedigree

From the selected person back

The screenshot shows a pedigree view on Ancestry.com. At the top, there are tabs for 'Pedigree' and 'Family'. On the left, there is a vertical toolbar with icons for home, refresh, search, zoom in, zoom out, and print. The main area displays a family tree. At the top is Johann Adam Schauss (1704-1770), who is the father of John Conrad Schauss (1738-1791). John Conrad Schauss is the father of John Adam Shows (1764-1842) and Johanna M M Schwint (1745-1766). A dropdown menu is open for John Adam Shows, showing his spouse and children. The spouse is Mary N Robertson. The children listed are Adam Shows (with a green house icon), John Shows, James Shows, Cornelius H Shows, Mary Nancy Shows, Sarah Shows, Hannah Shows, and Daniel Shows.

Hovering over a person will give you a snapshot on that person.

See page 6 for view profile.

A typical Family Group Sheet has the names of 3 generations, the main couple, their parents, if known, and their children, if known and recorded as well if there are other spouses for either of the couple. Clicking on the name will take you to the group sheet of that person.

Place Links

Clicking on a place will take you to ancestry places with the location marked. This feature is in beta and seems to take a long time to come in. They are tracking all the places for the individual, which can be a lengthy process if there are a lot of facts and places that the person has entered.
